

SENIOR DIRECTOR OF SPECIAL PROJECTS

(Position #1101)

Reporting to the CEO, the Senior Director of Special Projects is part of the Agency's senior leadership team and works closely with executive leadership to research, develop and implement strategic and innovative initiatives that align with and further the Agency's strategic plan. Proactively identifies and drives new opportunities to further the Agency's mission and vision through dynamic and synergistic collaborations, both within the Agency and in the community. The Senior Director of Special Projects will be expected to represent the Agency and CEO at various internal and external events, functions and meetings including stakeholders, community partners and State, County and City officials. Bachelor's degree from 4-year accredited college or university and 3 years working in behavioral health or related field are required. Graduate degree and experience with criminal justice system around behavioral health are preferred. Must have excellent oral and written communication skills, ability to meet deadlines, strong analytical skills, flexibility and comfortable presenting in a public setting.

The HARRIS CENTER offers a highly competitive compensation and benefits package including generous retirement plans and the opportunity to truly make a profound difference in peoples' lives. If you share our passion for this work, please visit our website at www.theharriscenter.org to complete the on-line application or submit your resume to stacie.sampson@theharriscenter.org