Please describe how your knowledge has changed regarding the objectives listed.	I learned about a program that I had no knowledge of. I'll take the information back to my director.
	Better understanding of juvenile competency fitness. Exposure to LEAP process.
	Interesting. Curious what happens if they are found competent but IQ is below 70. Are they still ended long up in the SSLC?
	I have began to consider how this information can benefit my consumers as I work with juvenile who often have court dates.
	Better understanding of juvenile competency fitness.
	I wasn't aware the LEAP program had been started in Dallas and Collin counties. The program sounds promising for ensuring our youth get the help they need.
	I have more resources available to review and expand my knowledge regarding youth in legal involvement.
	It was very informative.
	I loved their ideas for adapting to fit kids needs understood how LEAP works for kids; learned about "competency" for children
	Increased my knowledge on juvenile services and how to implement them

What topics would you like to see presented at future activities?	intellectual disability and autism.
	IDD
	How this work can be applied to all programs dealing with youth in the juvenile system. Like the bones of this information that could benefit them.
	how to implement court-ordered medication after being released from competency restoration

Legal Education Attainment Program (LEAP): An Innovative Alternative to Inpatient Juvenile Competency Restoration

	Juvenile Justice and delinquency training more data on the wait list times for competency restoration for both adults and youth
	Financial Reporting
	Updates on how it has been going

Comments	would love to hear more about funding and how program was developed from initial idea to program launch
	Enjoyed this presentation very much
	Very good information
